A failed school kid who turned adversities into opportunities, from Martial Arts to Movies. Over the years Greg has accomplished an incredible level of achievement...the worlds youngest professional Natural Bodybuilder, a multiple black belt martial artist, and award winning Hollywood film maker (Happy Feet, Mad Max Fury Road), world champion pistol shooter. But the successes aren't what made him. It was forging his pathway to those achievements that taught Greg the value of the true Warriors Code. Battling through failure and loss, it was his resilience that gave him the strength to turn setbacks into comebacks and that has made him the mentor and motivational speaker he is today. Greg is an active campaigner on the crusade to reduce youth suicide.
